LB 284A
LR 30

cut in aid to school lunches and a 28.6 million transfer of funds from a program for needy Americans to an Agriculture Department staff pay raise increase. Lyng counted that there is no reason for taxpayers to subsidize school lunches when parents should cover that, and that hunger among American children is the result of child abuse and neglect. Did you hear that? Poverty caused hunger has been eliminated from this country, Lyng said. That really gave me ammunition for my resolution. It is simply.... This is food delivered to the poor, and it is a program in Nebraska that will run out in April. Our funds here are $257,000. It would only leave $110,000 to distribute this food. It was distributed by the National Guard a few years ago. Some others states...

SPEAKER BARRETT: Your time has expired.

SENATOR NELSON: ...the money will run out in February or March.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you, Senator Nelson. Seeing no lights, I would presume we are ready to vote on the adoption of LR 30 as presented by Senator Nelson. All in favor of the motion please vote aye, opposed no. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Have you all voted on the adoption of LR 30? Please record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the adoption of LR 30.

SPEAKER BARRETT: LR 30 is adopted.

CLERK: Mr. President, I might add I have a request from Senator Chambers to add his name as co-introduced to LR 30.

SPEAKER BARRETT: If there are no objections, so ordered. As previously announced, the Chair would like to suggest we go back to General File and pick up one A bill which was passed over earlier. LB 284A, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, 284A by Senator Vard Johnson. (Read title.) It was introduced on February 2, referred directly to General File.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Vard, please.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, this bill came up earlier this morning, but I had not yet
